

"I am committed today, and every day, to creating a safe and welcoming Michigan for everyone to live as their true authentic selves, without fear of discrimination. Every person, and every identity deserves protection with the full extent of our civil rights laws. We are stronger when everyone is welcome. Today and always, I #StandWithTrans."
- State Senator Erika Geiss